Access Control Solutions

Digital Support Systems, Inc. delivers enterprise-grade IP-based access control solutions built on Allegion and ISONAS technologies. Our approach centers on network-native door controllers that provide scalability, resilience, and real-time management across facilities of any size. Services include: • System architecture and design • New construction and retrofit deployments • Cloud and on-prem access control • Credential lifecycle management • Ongoing support and system expansion We design systems that grow with your organization while maintaining security, uptime, and compliance.